

Michael Baxter is a graduate of McGill University in Animal Science. he is a certified massage Therapist, an Acupressurist from the Royal Acupressure Society of Alberta, as well as a Touch For Health Instructor of the International Kinesiology College in Alberta. For fifteen years, Michael has trained and shown horses internationally. His experience as a Massage Therapist and his lifetime love of horses prompted him to develop a system for Equine Sport Enhancement. Using the principles of sports massage, acupressure, applied kinesiology and he has designed a program which can enhance the efficiency of the equine athlete as well

Equine Sport Therapy by Michael Baxter

© M. Baxter
2003

Equine Sport Therapy

By Michael Baxter

Introduction to Equine Sport Therapy.
Safety & Handling, basic massage strokes, complete Boney Landmark Massage in theory and practical application.

DVD
 english / german

as, the life-span for competition with increased mobility, power and endurance. Recreational and professional horse enthusiasts alike are showing interest in Michael's Equine Sport Therapy System. He has also developed the Equine Soft Tissue program at Mount Royal College in Calgary. Michael is the founder and director of the Academy of Equine Sport Therapy, a seminar and consulting company. Dedicated to improving the equine sport therapy profession and the educating of lay people and professionals, who value equine sport enhancement and the well-being of the horse. Recreational and horse enthusiasts alike are showing interest in Michael's Equine Sport Therapy system.

Academy of Equine Sport Therapy

Park Plaza

19 Industrail Strassa

Senden D 48308

+49 (0) 17693149110

Info@iaest.de www.iaest.de

Michael Baxter is a graduate of McGill University in Animal Science. he is a certified massage Therapist, an Acupressurist from the Royal Acupressure Society of Alberta, as well as a Touch For Health Instructor of the International Kinesiology College in Alberta. For fifteen years, Michael has trained and shown horses internationally. His experience as a Massage Therapist and his lifetime love of horses prompted him to develop a system for Equine Sport Enhancement. Using the principles of sports massage, acupressure, applied kinesiology and he has designed a program which can enhance the efficiency of the equine athlete as well as, the life-span for competition with increased mobility, power and endurance. Recreational and professional horse enthusiasts alike are showing interest in Michael's Equine Sport Therapy System. He has also developed the Equine Soft Tissue program at Mount Royal College in Calgary. Michael is the founder and director of the Academy of Equine Sport Therapy, a seminar and consulting company. Dedicated to improving the equine sport therapy profession and the educating of lay people and professionals, who value equine sport enhancement and the well-being of the horse. Recreational and horse enthusiasts alike are showing interest in Michael's Equine Sport Therapy system.

Academy of Equine Sport Therapy

Park Plaza
 19 Industrail Strassa
 Senden D 48308
 +49 (0) 17693149110
Info@iaest.de www.iaest.de

All rights reserved © by Michael Baxter, 2003

Passive Mobilisation by Michael Baxter

© M.Baxter
 2003

Passive Mobilisation

By Michael Baxter

Passive Mobilisation of the horse.

With theoretical explanations and in practical demonstrations with the horse.

Including Preevent-Techniques

english / german